The Essence of France

10 Nights | 5 Rounds including Etretat, Le Golf National & Albatross, Les Bordes & Chantilly

Enjoy golf and chateaux in the Loire Valley, Normandy and Paris on this 10-night, five-round package available from April to October. Overlooking the bay and under the windows of the Grand Hotel, the course at Deauville is an old and challenging layout designed by Tom Simpson. Etretat sits atop the cliffs and delivers some of the most spectacular views in European golf. Les Bordes is a woodland golf course designed by Robert Von Hagge and also consistently ranked high in Europe. Chantilly-Vineuil, host of the French Open on many occasions, is another highly-rated Simpson offering. Le Golf National-Albatross is the host of the 2018 Ryder Cup, marking the first time the biennial matches have been played in France. Water protects the short par-5 18th, providing the ultimate risk-reward hole to finish. On non-golfing days take in a trip to France's largest castle, Chateau de Chambord, revel in the streets, sights and shopping of Paris, and visit World War II landmark Omaha Beach. Deluxe accommodations provided at Deauville's Hotel du Golf, Chateau d' Artigny and Hotel du Louvre.
