
The Best of Spain

9 Nights | 6 Rounds including Real Club de Golf de Sevilla, Valderrama & Finca Cortesin

Incredible golf and wonderful sightseeing are highlights of this nine-night, six-round trip through the heart of Spain's Costa del Sol, introducing the culture, scenery and history to complement the great courses, available in the spring and fall. San Roque - Old is steeped in history, hosting 15 consecutive European Tour Schools from 1993-2007 and the Spanish Open in 2005. Sotogrande was Robert Trent Jones, Sr.'s first designed course in Continental Europe, and it is a classic. Real Club de Golf de Sevilla is a enjoyable Jose Maria Olazabal design, featuring wide fairways and smooth greens. La Reserva opened in 2003 and the Cabell B. Robinson design quickly became a favorite among visitors to the Sotogrande. Valderrama is the best known course on the Costa del Sol, site of the 1997 Ryder Cup, claimed by the Europeans. Lightning fast greens, pristine fairways lined with cork trees create a terrific layout that's been ranked No. 1 in Continental Europe on many occasions. Accuracy, power and touch are all required to navigate this championship course. Finally, Finca Cortesin is a terrific venue and host of the 2023 Solheim Cup. Enjoy the streets of Seville, the Andalusian mountains and the rock of Gibraltar on various sightseeing trips. Deluxe accommodations are provided at the Hotel Alfonso XIII and the Finca Cortesin Hotel Golf & Spa.
