FRIDAY, JUNE 19: GLENEAGLES, SCOTLAND

GOLF: Today play the King's Course of Gleneagles Hotel. The King's course was the inspiration of James Braid, five time winner of the Open championship. It opened in 1919, representing the finest 'classical' golf course design. It is certainly one of the most beautiful and exhilarating places to play golf in the world. With the sweeping views from the tees all around, the rock-faced mountains to the north and the green hills to the south, and the peaks of the Trossachs and Ben Vorlich on the western horizon.

SIGHTSEEING: Non-Golfers enjoy a morning visit to Stirling Castle and the Wallace Monument; both great symbols of Scotland and a source of national pride. The Castle's long, turbulent history is associated with great figures from Scotland’s past such as William Wallace & Mary Queen of Scots. The Monument is a 220 feet sandstone tower build between 1861 and 1869 and the climb to the top is not for the faint-hearted. In the afternoon a chance to relax and enjoy the resort facilities of Gleneagles Hotel. The remainder of the afternoon is free for Golfers and Non-Golfers to relax and enjoy the many resort activities.

This morning we make our way through the Kingdom of Fife to St Andrews where we will enjoy a fascinating walking tour of St. Andrews visiting St. Andrews Castle, parts of St. Andrews University, and taking in the ruins of St. Andrews Cathedral, once one of the most important religious sites in Europe. Old Tom Morris and his son young Tom, are buried in the Cathedral Grounds. St. Andrews also offers a wide selection of shopping within a very convenient central area.

This evening enjoy dinner with your group in a local restaurant (included).

OVERNIGHT: Fairmont Hotel, St. Andrews - Deluxe Room

SUNDAY, JUNE 21: ST ANDREWS, SCOTLAND

GOLF: When the Castle Course opened in 2008 it was the first new golf course built for the St. Andrews Links Trust in over 100 years and the first ever outside of town. Scots architect David McLay Kidd, creator of Bandon Dunes, transformed a farm along the coast 2 miles east of the city center into a 'modern links' layout comparable to Kingsbarns and Castle Stuart. The setting is striking with wonderful views of St. Andrews and St. Andrews Bay plus a collection of seaside holes played along, around, and over rugged cliffs. A caddie is well worth your employ at the Castle Course if for no other reason than your tee shots - the line you want is seldom the one you see.

SIGHTSEEING: Non-Golfers this morning will enjoy walking a stretch of the Fife Coastal Path from the cosmopolitan atmosphere of St. Andrews to the former coal mining towns of central Fife. The small fishing villages of the East Neuk to the bustling industrial areas of the west, rugged cliffs, award winning beaches, internationally important estuaries and wildlife reserves, walking the Fife Coastal Path offers a flavour of the history. Industry and culture of this part of Scotland.

This afternoon Golfers and Non-Golfers alike will have the opportunity to visit the new Kingsbarns Distillery for a guided tour and whisky tasting. The vision of local caddie Douglas Clement Kingsbarns Distillery opened in 2014 making it one of Scotland newest distilleries.

This evening enjoy dinner with your group in a local restaurant (included).

OVERNIGHT: Fairmont Hotel, St. Andrews - Deluxe Room

MONDAY, JUNE 22: ST ANDREWS, SCOTLAND

GOLF: Today challenge the Old Course of St. Andrews the "Home of Golf". The Old Course has played host to the greatest golfers in the world and produced many of golf's dramatic moments. Wide double fairways, seven extensive double greens, and a multitude of intimidating bunkers are just some of the unique features you will encounter.

Please note the actual day of play for the Old Course is subject to final confirmation.*

 In order to play the Old Course an official handicap card is required from a golf club affiliated to the USGA, State Golf Association or equivalent governing body in the country in which you reside. The maximum handicaps for play on the Old Course are 24 Men & 36 Ladies.*

After golf we will have a putting competition at The St Andrews Ladies' Putting Club, better known as "The Himlayas". The nickname is well deserved and it is a stern test of skill and nerve.

SIGHTSEEING: Non-Golfers will today make the 90 minute drive to enjoy Edinburgh, capital city of Scotland; famous for its Parliament, Castle, Holyrood Palace, history, architecture, festivals, and city walking. The city is divided between the Old Town and the New Town. The Old Town is where you will find the greatest gathering of historical buildings whilst the New Town is more a celebration of business, order and classical Georgian architecture. This is the terrain of the shops, offices and banks as well as many bars and cafes. Enjoy an overview of the city before having free time to explore on your own.

OVERNIGHT: Fairmont Hotel, St. Andrews - Deluxe Room

TUESDAY, JUNE 23: ST ANDREWS, SCOTLAND

GOLF: In the Open rota since 1931 and having hosted the event on 7 occasions, Carnoustie will again do so in 2018. It is regarded perhaps the most difficult course the game's greats face in golf's oldest championship. While the links is relatively flat it is exposed to the elements. A combination of length and accuracy are required as golfers face narrow corridors from the tee. Approach shots demand precision to the greens heavily guarded by steep bunkers and burns. Arguably the toughest finishing holes in championship golf, errant shots are severely penalized.

SIGHTSEEING: Non-Golfers enjoy a visit to Falkland Palace; Built between 1501 and 1541 Falkland is one of Scotland's finest Renaissance palaces, a place adored by Mary, Queen of Scots. Explore this treasure trove of fascinating 17th-century artefacts, see the magnificent Chapel Royal, and walk in the colourful and diverse grounds. The palace is also home to the world's oldest surviving real tennis court.

OVERNIGHT: Fairmont Hotel, St. Andrews – Deluxe Room

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24: TURNBERRY, SCOTLAND

Scotland's biggest city has evolved over the last couple of decades to become one of Britain's most intriguing metropolises. THURSDAY, JUNE 25: TURNBERRY, SCOTLAND

OVERNIGHT: Trump Turnberry – Deluxe Room

FRIDAY, JUNE 26: TURNBERRY, SCOTLAND

GOLF: Today play the Ailsa Course at Trump Turnberry. The course has undergone a redevelopment and reopened with a stunning new layout in June 2016. Lying on a spectacular curve of rockbound coast in the southern reaches of Ayrshire. The course now makes the most of the coastal scenery especially from the 4th through the 11th passing the famous landmark lighthouse at the turn, which is now a stunning halfway house. This is a demanding links course, and an ever-present wind will make for a tough examination of your golfing skills. In 2009 the Ailsa Course hosted The 138th Open for the 4th time when golfing legend Tom Watson lost out to Stewart Cink in a playoff for the Claret Jug.

SIGHTSEEING: Non-Golfers will enjoy a visit to Culzean Castle & Country Park. Converted by Robert Adam to include a 'Roman' viaduct and Ruined Arch to add drama to this Italianate castle in its spectacular cliff top setting. It contains a fine collection of paintings and furniture, and a display of weapons in the Armoury. The Circular Saloon has a superb panoramic view over the Firth of Clyde and the beautiful Oval Staircase is Robert Adam's final masterpiece of interior design. In 1945 the top floor was given to General Eisenhower as a token of Scotland's recognition of his role during World War II.

The remainder of the afternoon is free for Golfers and Non-Golfers to relax and enjoy the many resort activities.

This evening enjoy Farewell drinks and dinner with your group (included).

Golf Schedule

Gleneagles - King's Course

The King's Course at Gleneagles was the inspiration of James Braid, five-time winner of The Open. It opened in 1919, representing the finest 'classical' golf course design. In 1921 the course hosted the inaugural, albeit informal Ryder Cup between Great Britain and the United States. It is certainly one of the most beautiful places in the world to play golf with. Sweeping views of the rock-faced mountains to the north and the green hills to the south, plus the peaks of the Trossachs and Ben Vorlich on the western horizon. The King's Course has hosted an impressive list of important events ranging from the 100th Scottish PGA Championship to the Curtis Cup and Scottish Open.

Carnoustie

The first record of golf played on this links land dates to 1527. In 1842, a 10-hole course was designed by Alan Robertson followed by an 18-hole course by Old Tom Morris in 1857. James Braid extended the layout in 1926 which is essentially the links found today. While it is relatively flat, Carnoustie is exposed to the elements. A combination of length and accuracy are required as golfers face narrow corridors from the tee while approach shots demand precision to greens heavily guarded by steep bunkers and burns. Arguably the toughest finishing holes in championship golf are found here highlighted by the par-4, 476 yard 14th and the 245 yard par-3 16th. Ben Hogan won The 82nd Open at Carnoustie in 1953. Tom Watson and Gary Player also hoisted the Claret Jug here as has Pádraig Harrington and most recently Francesco Molinari in 2018.

St Andrews - Old Course

This is the "Home of Golf". The Old Course has played host to the greatest golfers and produced many of golf's most dramatic moments. Wide double fairways, seven extensive double greens, and a multitude of intimidating bunkers are just some of the unique features you will encounter. Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods each hoisted the Claret Jug here on two occasions. In 1927, Bobby Jones claimed The 62nd Open six years after taking four strokes to escape the Hill Bunker at the 11th and tearing up his scorecard! No. 17, the "Road Hole", is always an adventure as is negotiating the Valley of Sin at the short par-4 18th.

St Andrews - Castle Course

Located two miles from St Andrews town centre, and following the Fife coastline, the Castle Course is a wonderful addition to the St Andrews Links Courses. The designer, David McLay Kidd, creator of Bandon Dunes in Oregon, created a typical Scottish golf experience with wonderful views over the town and the North Sea. It has been designed with tradition very much in mind. Approaches will allow for bump and run as well as pitches and the heavily contoured greens are fantastic.

Trump Turnberry - Ailsa Course

You can't rush perfection, Turnberry's Ailsa Course is proof. It was established in 1902, modified in 1906, modified again in 1909, redesigned in 1938 then nearly disappeared after the Second World War when it was converted into an airbase with several holes flattened into concrete runways. It was restored and reopened in 1951 as one of Scotland's finest links to the extent it hosted The Open for the first time in 1977 when Tom Watson's 65-65 weekend beat Jack Nicklaus' 65-66. MacKenzie & Ebert made extensive alterations before The Open in 2009 then Ebert returned for a major update in 2015. The result is spectacular, particularly but by no means limited to holes 9-11 that play across and along the bay atop rock outcrops on the left; dunes, pot bunkers and high fescue on the right. The club's famous lighthouse includes an incredible two-bedroom suite and one of the most memorable halfway houses in golf.

Royal Troon

Royal Troon is a course in the current Open rota. Arnold Palmer, Tom Watson and Tom Weiskopf (his only win in a major) have won here as did Henrik Stenson whose Sunday round of 63 outlasted Phil Mickelson's 65 to claim The 145th Open. A long links that is consistently praised for its testing but fair set up. Troon boasts the shortest hole among Open venues, being the "Postage Stamp" 8th at 126 yards. The layout gives you a chance to find your game with a gentle opening but the inward nine is considered one of the most difficult sides in major championship golf.
