JANUARY 18, WEDNESDAY: EAST LONDON, SOUTH AFRICA (7:30AM / 4:00PM)

GOLF: East London Golf Club has been one of South Africa's favorite championship venues for decades. It has hosted six National Opens, the European Tour and the National Amateur counting the likes of Els, Schwartzel and Oosthuizen among the winners here. The club was originally founded in 1893. Today it is a coastal gem, opened in 1923, with a wonderful mix of parkland and links holes typically played to elevated greens. No. 9, The Glades, is particularly memorable. After a 50 yard walk through a tunnel of bush, you reach an elevated tee that begs for a bomb. Catching the slope makes all the difference for your approach with a middle iron played slightly uphill to a green protected by thick brush on all sides.

SIGHTSEEING: East London is a relatively small town on the Eastern Cape. Stroll the sands of Bonza Bay Beach or Cove Rock. The East London Zoo is located inside the beautiful Queens Park Zoological Gardens and is home to an impressive variety of plant life and animals, including tigers, jaguar and chimpanzee. JANUARY 20, FRIDAY: MAPUTO, MOZAMBIQUE (8:00AM / 3:00PM)

A medley of African and Mediterranean influence is abundant on cruises to Mozambique's bustling capital and center of commerce. Settled by the Portuguese in the 1700s, centuries of travel and trade from Africa, Asia, and Europe created Maputo's vibrant, diverse cultural scene.

Easily explored by foot, Maputo's Old Town stretches northeast from the port. From here, the city's most prominent street, Avenida Julius Nyerere, parallels the coastline and passed the sprawling Presidential Palace and the stunning Hotel Polana. Peruse local boutiques and vendors for bright African wax print and woven fabrics, Batik cloth, wood carvings, or any type of cashew imaginable (they're Mozambique's second biggest export).

While Old Town has many sidewalk cafes (where fish and shellfish dominate the menus), at Maputo's bustling Fish Market (northeast along Avenida Julius Nyerere), select something fresh and have it grilled on-site at one of the several attached restaurants.
